

We are delighted to welcome Debbie Laycock as our guest speaker to celebrate with us our 10th Anniversary Conference.

Debbie Laycock (nee Forster, married to Joe in 2007) graduated from Cambridge in Classics and then worked for two years with an evangelistic youth project in inner-city London. She later trained in theology, church leadership and church planting with Ichthus Christian Fellowship where she has worked ever since. She helped to plant a congregation in East Greenwich some years ago, and now leads the Ichthus congregation in Forest Hill. She serves on the central Ministry and Management Team of Ichthus, and also manages the Ichthus Training Programmes. She teaches New Testament Greek and some theology and holds a certificate in Ancient Near Eastern Languages, majoring on Biblical Hebrew. She is also privileged to be a trustee of Know Your Bible. As of last year, she is the proud mother of beautiful twins Thomas and Zoe!
