

WEEKLY NEWS MONDAY 17th JULY 2017

WEEK 13 This week is all about having lots of fun!

The role play will be a stage, with a dressing room, complete with inflatable microphones and guitars.

We have a Karaoke machine, board games, parachute, craft and puzzles. Our Party day for the Butterfly Leavers is Wednesday, David and Katie are the entertainers (who else?) The arrangements for Wednesday are; operating as normal for the morning session for all, the caterpillars will be collected at 12pm and the Butterflies stay or will start arriving, if they don't attend that day. The party will finish at 2pm; collect your child promptly please.

Thanks to all my dedicated staff for all their hard work, caring and nurturing your children throughout the year and as we bid farewell to some staff, moving onto pastures new, we wish them all the best in their future and ask they keep in touch. We welcome back the Caterpillar group as 'big' Butterflies, after the summer holidays, and also four new members of staff! We wish the Butterflies a fond farewell as they spread their wings, flying off to new adventures at their various schools, please come back to visit - we love to see ex-Rainbow children in their school uniforms!

Circle time choices

1. Parachute/inflatable ball
2. Group games

MONDAY 17 th	Autumn term invoices go out. Are you up to date with Summer term fee payments? We have lots of lost property. It will be on display on the table by the gate, please take a look, we would like it to be reunited!
TUESDAY 18 th	Noah's Ark party at the Vicarage 1.00pm-2.30pm Butterfly leavers A4 artwork for the Class of 2017 book - please encourage our child to create something.
WEDNESDAY 19 th LAST DAY OF TERM 	Butterfly leavers party today 12.00 – 2.00pm Craft, party food, Davis & Katie's Magic show and joint gift from Rainbow and St Stephen's Church Normal morning session for all, the caterpillars will be collected at 12pm and the Butterflies will start arriving if they don't attend that day. The party will finish at 2pm; collect your child promptly please. (see attached for full details)

Autumn term starts Thursday 7th September